Annual Index
AND
Guide to the Periodicals of the World.

With the help of the Annual Index, the student or writer can easily ascertain in what Periodicals he can read articles on almost any subject; and, as the more recent Magazines and Reviews are to be found in the newer as well as the old Public Libraries, these mines of current thought need no longer remain unexplored on the shelves with such a handy Key, issued at a price within the means of all.

It is universally admitted to be the best work in its line ever published, and "an absolutely indispensable work of reference" for LIBRARIANS, BOOKSELLERS, JOURNALISTS, CLERGYMEN, and all CONTRIBUTORS to the literature of our time.

The second, third, and fourth volumes, which covered the years 1891, 1892, and 1893, contained many improvements on the first issue.

The fifth volume, covering 1894, ready end of June, is considerably enlarged and elaborated.

VOL. I., covering the year 1890, 144 pp.

VOL. II., covering the year 1891, 156 pp.

VOL. III., covering the year 1892, 192 pp.

VOL. IV., covering the year 1893, 224 pp.

VOL. V., covering the year 1894, almost ready.

5s. per Volume; or 5s. 5d. post free.
